Assignment:

When the German troups went to war at the beginning of August 1914, Emperor Wilhelm II promised the men that they would be back home at Christmas. But in reality, the soldiers were faced with a gruelling trench warfare and suffered enormous losses. The battle often referred to as a "Promenade to Paris" eventually turned out to be awfully horrible. In addition, the situation of the population got worse. Describe, how the war changed the everyday situation for the Describe, how the war changed the everyday situation for the people in Germany!

Answers:

1st Chapter • The domestic development

In

didact[®] media